Use of Website and Means of Communication

The information on and communication via the Website, podcasts and/or social media is only intended as general information. No rights can be derived from the information and communication via the Website, podcasts and/or social media. Although we take due care in compiling and maintaining (the content of) the Website, podcasts and social media, we reasonably make every effort to ensure that the information on and communication via the Website, podcasts and social media is correct and up-to-date, using sources that are considered reliable, it is still possible that the Website, podcasts and/or social media contain inaccuracies, outdated information or communication or typos. We therefore do not guarantee the accuracy, completeness and topicality of the information and communication provided, nor do we guarantee that the Website, podcasts and/or social media will function flawlessly or uninterrupted. The use of the Website, podcasts and/or social media as well as the information and communication contained therein is entirely at your own expense and risk.

Podcasts

The information and/or communication in the podcasts is provided by individual parties, who may or may not work for NLO. These parties can give their individual and personal opinion on the topics covered in the podcasts. These opinions are (in principle) not the opinions of NLO and cannot be attributed to us. We do not control, do not supervise and are not responsible for the content of those opinions of the individual parties and the information and communication expressed by them.

Third-party information

The website and/or social media contains links and the podcasts may also contain references to other websites and/or social media over which we have no influence or that are not maintained by us.

Although we are extremely selective with regard to the websites to which links and references are made, we cannot be held responsible for the content and functioning thereof and any associated pages, nor the quality of any products and/or services offered on them. We only offer these links and references for your convenience. This does not automatically mean our approval, consent or recommendation thereof or our connection to it. Consulting such links and any references to third-party information, communication, content, goods, products, processes or services while using the Website, podcasts and/or social media, whether or not by tradename, trademark, manufacturer name or otherwise, is entirely at your own expense and risk.

It is not permitted to copy, download or in any way disclose, perform, distribute or reproduce information on the Website, in the podcasts and/or on social media, other than for your own personal use. Permission to perform the podcasts publicly, whether or not in publicly accessible places, can always be requested via the contact details at the bottom of this page.

If the content of the information on the Website, in the podcasts and/or on social media mistakenly violates your copyright or other rights vested in you, whether or not by using (specific) information, articles or images, you can report this via the contact details at the bottom of this page. Any information, articles or images that infringe the copyright or any other right vested in you will then be removed directly from the Website and (if and to the extent possible) from the podcast and/or from social media, without us being obliged to pay any compensation.

Limitation of liability

The information and communication on the Website, in the podcasts and on social media is made available as it is ('as-is'), without any guarantee, either directly, indirectly or otherwise, including, but not limited to, the correctness or the presence or absence of errors, regardless of their traceability, if and insofar as the law does not provide otherwise.

Any liability and responsibility with regard to the accuracy, completeness, topicality of the information and communication provided, including the content, use or availability of third-party websites referred to or referring to this Website, podcasts and/or social media, and/or the (undisturbed) use of the Website, podcasts and/or social media, is hereby excluded. We are never liable for any direct or indirect, special or incidental damage or consequential damage, including and without limitation damage due to loss of turnover, damage or loss of data, interruption of business operations, or for any other commercial damage or loss resulting from or related to the use or inability to use (the information and/or communication on and/or through and/or in) the Website, podcasts and/or social media, for any reason whatsoever, regardless of the liability ground invoked and even if we have been informed of the risk of this damage, if and insofar as the law does not provide otherwise.
